

2015 Bergström Vineyard Pinot Noir

Planted in 1999 by John and Karen Bergström, the Bergström Vineyard in the Dundee Hills AVA is the crown jewel of Bergström; capable of reaching astounding heights in the expression of Willamette Valley Pinot Noir. One of our best wines to age in the cellar, the 13 acres of Bergström Vineyard consistently produces seductive yet powerful Pinot Noirs. The 2015 Bergström Vineyard Pinot Noir is no exception.

Dark Black Cherry in color with youthful, vibrant and unfurled aromas. Dark fruits, dried herbs, fresh roses, terra cotta (volcanic roasted clay), and pungent earthy, mushroom like aromas. The wine is bright and youthful with taught flavors of ripe dark cherry and candied currant, lending silky structure, finishing with a noticeable stony and volcanic minerality. Delicious now with succulent acidity and a suave finish but not ready to drink. This is a very complex, young wine that will benefit from time in the cellar.
