

2015 Sigrid Chardonnay

Now a sommelier favorite amongst Michelin-starred restaurants across the United States and internationally, Sigrid is our estate grown, biodynamic Chardonnay harvested from the Bergström Vineyard, Silice Vineyard and the Gregory Ranch. Representing 30 months of our efforts each vintage, the Sigrid Chardonnay is our finest expression of Willamette Valley regional character for this varietal. The 2015 vintage is our 10th anniversary of growing and crafting this great white wine. I have never been more proud of a wine as I am of our Chardonnays these days, and Sigrid is leading the way.

Golden in color with a green hue, the 2015 Sigrid Chardonnay is very special and perhaps the most mineral and floral wine that we have crafted, to date. This wine has an elegant bouquet of citrus blossoms and fruits, flint, smoke, sweet baking spices and salted citrus slices (say that 10 times fast) topped with cream. The aromas follow through into the flavor profile with citrus flavors like lime, lemon and grapefruit as well as granny smith apple and green Anjou pear. Texturally magnificent and accented with a heady, floral perfume of white flowers and spiced crème fraîche, this wine captures the brightness and elegance of the 2015 vintage.
